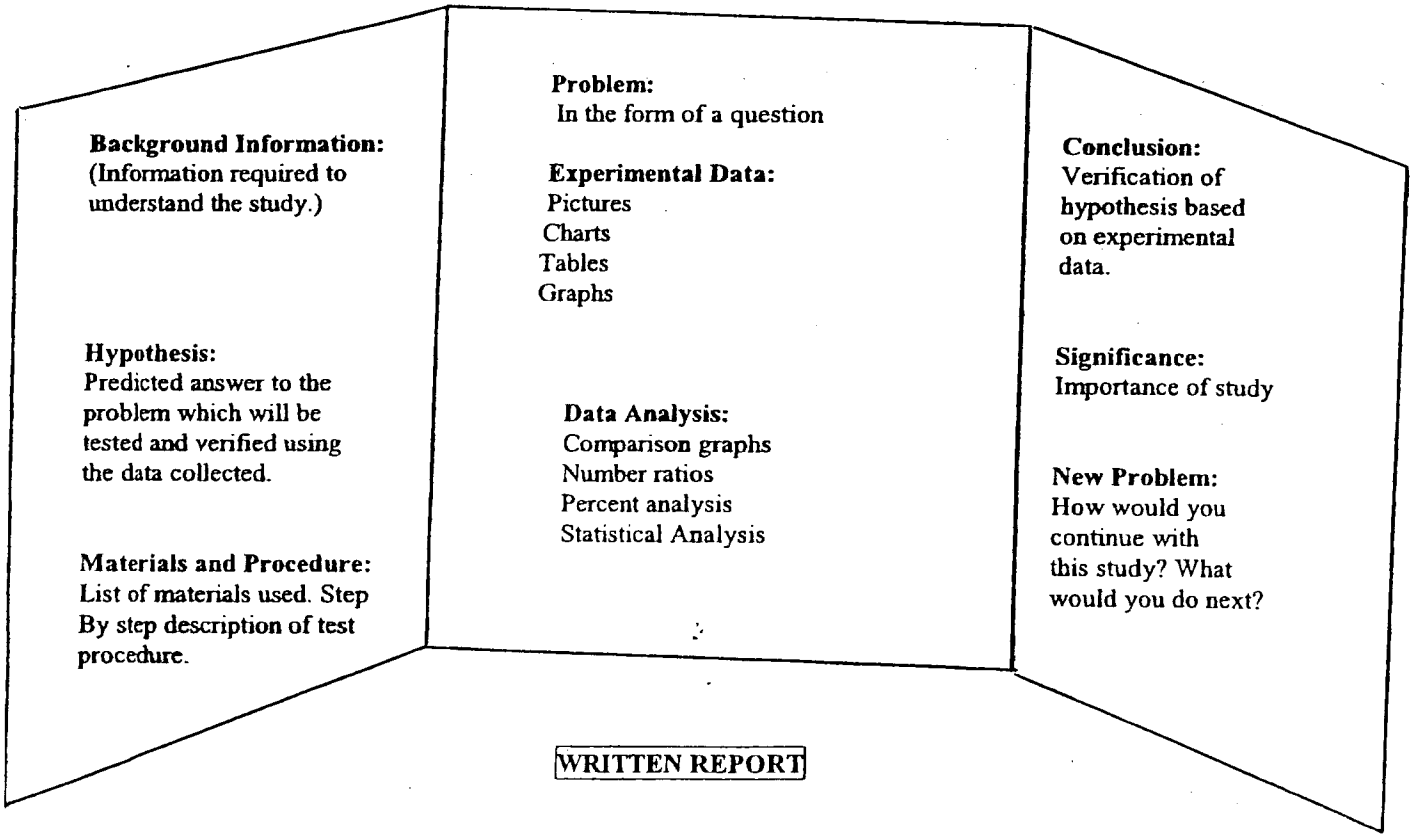
Example of A Project Board


Your project board should be patterned after the one below. You may use a computer or purchase letters for your title, which states your problem in the form of a question. All information should be typed and mounted neatly. Boards must be self-supporting. They may be purchased at our school or at a stationary supply store.